1. On 26 December 1949 the Canton General Labor Union appointed CH'EN Shu-jan (陳曙然) to arrange for the take-over of the Canton Mechanics' Union. CH'EN K'ung-chia, one of the officials engaged in the take-over, announced to the union an order setting forth the reasons for which the union was being taken over by the Communists. The order stated that for the past ten years the union had been controlled by LI Te-hsuan (李德軒), who had helped the Nationalist exploit the workers, and the union was therefore being liberated and reorganized.

4. The Canton printers are showing no interest in their newly-organized labor union. The reasons for this lack of interest may be attributed to the following facts:
 - a. Printers of the Yueh-Hua (越華), Hsien Hsiang (現象), and Kuo Hua (國華) plants have been receiving wages in proportion to the earnings of the respective plants. However, should they become union members, their wages will be standardized and they will not receive as much as formerly.
 - b. The wages at the Nan Fung Pao (South China Press) and other papers taken over by the Communists are lower than they were under the Nationalist regime. No improvements have been noticed in these Communist plants and the printers feel that Communist labor unions will not improve their standard of living.
5. Communist authorities in Canton dispatched workers and funds to aid the strike of the Hong Kong Tramways Company Union. The workers were divided into small groups, and each group was controlled by a political inspector who frightened the workers into not saying anything against them. The strike committee supplied funds to the chief of each group who in turn provided relief to the workers under him.*
6. WU Shao-shu (吳紹樹) has been appointed as an advisor to the Ministry of Communications.
7. Communists who have been assigned for the take-over of the Bank of China, the Bank of Communications, the Farmer's Bank of China, the Central Trust of China, the Postal Savings and Remittances Bank, and the China Vegetable Oil Corporation in Hong Kong are CHI Ch'ao-ting (冀朝鼎), CH' IEN Chia-chu (千家駒) and CHANG Nai-ch'i (章乃器).
